All Shakman-exempt personnel (other than those in City Council) must sign an Ethics Pledge obligating them to comply with these two-year restrictions.

Note that none of these restrictions prohibit you from accepting employment with anyone; however, they may restrict what you can do in your new employment.

Every City contract must include a provision that requires compliance with Chicago's Governmental Ethics Ordinance. Therefore, if your new employer has an interest in matters involving the City, it is imperative that you and your employer understand what, if any, post-employment restrictions apply to you.

This summary is only an overview intended to help current and former City employees develop a basic understanding of their responsibilities under the Ordinance. For authoritative guidance on specific questions, consultation with the Board of Ethics is recommended. The Board will maintain the confidentiality requirements of the Ordinance. For assistance, call (312) 744-9660.

2. that I understand that I can view and download the complete text of the City's Governmental Ethics Ordinance by accessing the website of the Board of Ethics at www.cityofchicago.org/Ethics/
